3024. Bobby Grich Autographed Baseball

As a Baltimore Oriole (1970-1976) and later as a California Angel (1977-1986), Grich earned a reputation for his defensive skills. He was a six time All Star, four time Golden Glove winner, and twice had seasons with a .995 fielding percentage. He played in two AL Championship Series as an Oriole (73/74) and three as an Angel (79/82/86). Grich was the star of one of the most exciting play off games in history, when his home run in Game 5 of the 1986 ALCS put the Angels within one inning of going to the World Series. The Red Sox came back the next inning, eventually winning the game, and going to the World Series.
