STRONGHOLD AT THE EDGE OF ROME HAS BEEN ROBBED!

An image of the stronghold that was robbed

Last night, a stronghold at the edge of Rome was robbed. This particular stronghold held items that were from the fallen Greeks. There wasn't much in the stronghold except weapons. The guards were confused as why someone would steal weapons, because Rome had so many. Apparently that's what everyone thought. Because only V guards were posted. The guards were interviewed. They all answered the same. They said, "He was like a ghost."

When the guards realized what was happening, the thief held fled. Although, they were confused on why the thief was there. After the burglary, the guards took an inventory. They were baffled. The thief stole --- Greek fire! All of the other weapons were untouched. Now, the guards and other are on the lookout for the the *Greek Fire Latro. Who knows? He might strike again.

WEAK SLAVE CHALLENGES THE GREAT REMUS

A weak slave named Brutus was fighting the Great Remus in the training yard. Of course Remus is pounding Brutus into dust. Remus threw Brutus to the ground and started to walk away. He was muttering to himself, "Puny slave." When Brutus heard this he rose and said to Remus, "I challenge you to a fight!" Remus replied saying, "See you there." Brutus had made the biggest mistake of his life. He was going into a suicide brawl.

REMUS GETS SOME LOVE!

FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT!

The day of the fight in the Colosseum all the citizens that could be there. It was the most attend gladiatorial fight ever. Remus entered the Colosseum and met roars of cheers from the crowd. The crowd was ready for blood. Brutus hesitated as he entered the Colosseum. The Spectators could smell the fear. Emperor Trajan rose his hand, and the fight commenced. Remus charged. But as soon as he made contact He was thrown back. He was hit, -- with Greek Fire! After the silence the crowd erupted in cheers , they didn't fully realized what had happened. In the midst of the cheering, Brutus fled.

HE DID WHAT!

Brutus, the Greek (the Greek Fire Latro)

That's right! Brutus is Greek! He was the one who robbed the stronghold at the edge of Rome. We now know why the Greek fire was stolen. The thief had to go with what he knew. Brutus' inmate was interviewed. He said, " Brutus was going crazy about the fight!"
