THE DAY I NEEDED HELP

ESSENTIAL QUESTION : CAN FICTIONAL STORIES TEACH READERS SOMETHING ABOUT LIFE?

GENRE: FICTION/MADE-UP STORY ABOUT CHARACTERS AND EVENTS.

HIGH FREQUENCY WORDS

LIKE, SAY, AND TOO

STORY WORDS

AMBULANCE, ANKLE, HOSPITAL, SEARCH AND RESCUE, SPRAIN, STRETCHER, TRAILS, X-RAY

COMPREHENSION SKILL

Cause and Effect: a cause is an event that makes something happen, and an effect is what happens because of the event. For example:

Cause: I forgot to put gas in my car.

Effect: The car didn't start.

CAUSE AND EFFECT RELATIONSHIP FROM "THE DAY I NEEDED HELP":

Cause: The boy sees a big blue butterfly.

What happens because the boy sees the butterfly?

Effect: The boy calls to his parents.